

Vishakhapatnam Coal-Fired Thermal Power Plant, India

O&M Full Scope Services

Construction site Vishakhapatnam

Full Scope O&M services for thermal power plant Vishakhapatnam

Hinduja National Power Corporation Limited (HNPCL) set up a greenfield coal-fired thermal mega power plant at the coast of Bay of Bengal in Vishakhapatnam. The project comprises two units of 520 MW each with state-of-the-art technology offered by Bharat Heavy Electricals Limited (BHEL). COD was achieved 2016. Responsibilities of SES: establishment of O&M procedures and technical office including the facility documentation; development of a human resources policy and recruiting of qualified and experienced personnel; implementation of infrastructure, communication systems and IT systems; training of personnel; long-term full scope operation & maintenance.

Project Facts

Installed capacity	2 x 520 MW
Fuel	bituminous (hard) coal
Customer	Hinduja National Power Corporation Limited
SES project execution	03/2012 - ongoing